TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

SATURDAY, December 15, 1859.

RECEIVED.

Mr. Bedford, a resolution to raise a joint committee on the subject of the abolition of slavery.

Mr. Wright, the present dove-keeper, with congratulations on his return to the House as a member with expressions of a hope that he would be re-elected.

Mr. Payne, from the joint select committee on the subject of the abolition of slavery, to give the report of the same.

On motion of Mr. Trumble, five hundred copies of the report were ordered to be printed.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

By order of the Democratic State Central Committee, Wednesday, the 16th of January, has been agreed upon as the time for the assembly at Nashville, of the Democracy of Tennessee.

The West Tennessee Delegates, to be as follows:

John E. Ellington, Chairman of the State

Democratic Party.

J. C. HUNTINGTON,

Chairman of the Committee.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT RALEIGH.

In accordance with a resolution passed by the State Democratic Convention at Raleigh on the 10th December, we announce that a meeting of the Democracy of the country is required at Raleigh on Monday, the 2nd day of January.

The object of the meeting is to consider the action of the State Convention, which

and which will appoint delegates to represent the State in the Charleston Convention. A full attendance is desired.

A TINY DIFFERENCE.

The editor of the Appeal is at present in Washington City taking some time off

from his editorial labors.

He has written to his friends in the state

Senate, to communicate his views.

He charged the Republican party with the removal of Brown's name from the state

almanac, which may give some alarm.

Passing over the incident at the Democracy contained in the foregoing, we doubt not the remainder is every word true, though it is slightly at variance with the position of the author of the paper.

After Brown's fury at Harper's Ferry,

we are glad to learn that he has knocked out his eyes and is unable to see clearly.

EXPORTS OF THE LAST YEAR.

According to the forthcoming report of the Secretary of the Treasury, as we learn from the Washington Constitution, the exports of the United States during the year ending

in June, 1859, amounted to $25,500,000,

in addition to which we also exported some thing over twenty millions of foreign production, making all our exports above $50,000,000.
